LET'S KNOW ABOUT MY COUNTRY BANGLADESH Jabeen Quazi Mahera (Bangladesh)

Bangladesh is the only country in the world where people sacrificed their life to save their mother language on February 21st, 1952. UNESCO declared this day as the International Mother Language Day in 2000. Bangladesh has many attractive tourist places such as beaches, waterfalls, hills, rivers, fields, etc. Cox's Bazar is the world's longest beach (125 km). The Sundarbans mangrove forest is one of the largest forests of its kind, in the world, and has a large amount of wildlife including the Royal Bengal Tiger. Jamuna Bridge is the world's 11th longest bridge (5.63 km). The performance of the Bangladesh national cricket team in International Cricket makes the nation proud. Bangladesh Armed Forces have consistently been the world's largest contributor to UN peacekeeping forces for many years. Bangladesh exports tea, shrimp, leather, jute, cotton, garments products to various countries in the world including Japan. Bangladeshi garment products are imported into Japan and found in famous brand shops. This small country is trying to be a developed country day by day. People who are willing to make a trip outside Japan, please visit this small beautiful country.
