HOME, AWAY FROM HOME

Anna Nakata (Philippines)

A “home away from home” a place where one is happy and comfortable, this is what AIS means to me.

For almost two decades of living here in Japan, two decades of being at times an active and at times an inactive AIS member, I have experienced and learned many things about Japan here in AIS. Also, I have encountered people from different countries and had the chance of experiencing, venturing, and embracing cultural exchanges.

I am so blessed that I have been given the chance to share my skill in dancing especially Philippine dances to some members of the group. It is really a great privilege to perform whenever and wherever we are requested to do so.

Living away from home is not an easy thing. But as long as there are people who are willing to give their time and effort voluntarily for the sake of foreigners, living in a place away from home won't matter anymore.

You can still call such a place “HOME”

More power to AIS!
